LCSO Seeks Public's Assistance in Identifying Wanted Subjects

Loudoun County, Virginia- The Loudoun County Sheriff's Office is asking for the public's assistance in identifying several unidentified subjects from the agencies wanted subject's web site.

The subjects were allegedly involved in recent crimes in Loudoun County or may have knowledge of a crime. In some of the cases the agency has developed a composite sketch or compiled video and/or other images for release to the public to help identify the subjects. The list can be viewed on the Loudoun County Sheriff's Office website at www.loudoun.gov/wanted.

Callers who can identify or know the whereabouts of any of the subjects can contact the Loudoun County Sheriff's Office Criminal Investigations Division at 703-777-0475. If the caller wishes to remain anonymous, they are asked to call Loudoun Crime Solvers at 703-777-1919. If the information provided to Loudoun Crime Solvers leads to the arrest and indictment of the subject(s), the caller could be eligible for a cash reward of up to $1000.

Wanted Subjects

An unknown Black male and an unknown White female robbed the Healthway Natural Food Store in Sterling on Jan. 22, 2010. The suspects fled in a silver/grey SUV (similar to 2007 GMC Acadia). A composite sketch of the female was developed. If you can identify, please call Inv. M. McCaffrey at 703-777-0475.

A firearm and other items were removed from a residence on E. Laurel Ave. during a party in January. The two pictured subjects may have information regarding the larceny. If you can identify, please call Inv. E. Wilk at 703-777-0475.

On Jan. 23, 2010, two female suspects entered the Gold's Gym on Ashbrook Place in Ashburn and removed a wallet from the men's locker room. If you can identify, please call Inv. K. Lesesne at 703-777-0475.
